FROM THE DIOCESE

This week, consider how we, as Church, are living a participative and inclusive ecclesial process. Do we offer everyone, especially those, who for various reasons, find themselves on the margins, the opportunity to express themselves so that they may contribute to the edification of the People of God? As you reflect on these questions, consider "what steps the Holy Spirit is inviting us to take as we continue our journey together" and pray with Luke 6:17-36.

Prayer to St. Joseph

To you, O blessed Joseph,
do we come in our tribulation,
and having implored the help of your most holy Spouse,
we confidently invoke your patronage also.

Through the charity which bound you to the Immaculate Virgin Mother of God and through the paternal love
with which you embraced the Child Jesus,
we humbly beg you graciously to regard the inheritance
which Jesus Christ purchased by his Blood, and with your power and strength to aid us in our necessities.

O most watchful guardian of the Holy Family,
defend the chosen children of Jesus Christ;
O most loving father, ward off from us
every contagion of error and corrupting influence;
O our most mighty protector, be kind to us
and from heaven assist us in our struggle with the power of darkness.

As once you rescued the Child Jesus from deadly peril,
so now protect God's Holy Church
from the snares of the enemy and from all adversity;
shield, too, each one of us by your constant protection,
so that, supported by your example and your aid,
we may be able to live piously, to die in holiness,
and to obtain eternal happiness in heaven.

Amen

NOVEMBER MEMORIAL BOOK

During November, we especially remember our faithful departed as we invite all to inscribe the names of their deceased loved ones in the “Memorial Book.” The individuals listed are remembered daily at Mass throughout the month of November and are commended to the prayers of the entire parish. Please feel free to add names of your departed loved ones any time during November.

Adumus Sancte Spiritus

We stand before you, Holy Spirit,
As we gather together in Your name.

With You alone to guide us, make Yourself at home in our hearts;

Teach us the way we must go and how we are to pursue it.

We are weak and sinful; do not let us promote disorder.

Do not let ignorance lead us down the wrong path

Nor partiality influence our actions.

Let us find in You our unity so that we may journey together
To eternal life and not stray from the way of truth and what is right.

All this we ask of You, who are at work in every place and time, in the communion of the Father and the Son, forever and ever.

Amen
